Visitor Information:

Baltimore Inner Harbor (<http://www.baltimore.to/>)

Baltimore's Inner Harbor is one of America's oldest seaports - and one of the world's newest travel destinations. Since the 1600's, Baltimore Harbor has been welcoming people, ships and goods from all over the world. Join us for a day trip or plan your vacation to center around Maryland's world-famous seaport.

Baltimore! (<http://www.baltimore.org/>)

The very best way to learn about Baltimore-and make some unbeatable memories-is to do a little exploring on your own. Baltimore offers a rich mix of history, arts, culture, and maritime heritage-not to mention its celebrated oddball character!

Baltimore.com (<http://www.baltimore.com/>)

Baltimore - it's not so much a place as an experience. And after close to three hundred years of history, this city can deliver more fun-filled family days (and romantic evenings) to make any trip to Baltimore an absolute winner.

National Aquarium (<http://www.aqua.org/>)

The Aquarium is home to approximately 10,500 specimens and more than 560 species of animals. Visit their web site for a complete overview and to plan your visit.

Harbor Place (<http://www.harborplace.com/>)

Harborplace is Baltimore... in a single place. One look, listen, smell, taste, or touch and all your senses will thank you for giving them an authentic Baltimore experience. It's Harborplace. And it is Baltimore.
